Re: SEC v. Princeton Alternative Funding, LLC, et al., Case No. 3:21-cv-12971

Your Honor:

I am writing to address Defendants' request for leave to file a sur-sur-reply in connection with their motion to compel discovery from non-party law firm Ballard Spahr. Defendants concede their request is unusual. More than that, it is part and parcel with the harassing conduct that, as Ballard Spahr explains in its briefing, warrants sanction. We respectfully suggest that rather than further and excessive briefing, the Court schedule oral argument to address Defendants' motion to compel and the four briefs on the motion already before the Court.

Thank you for your consideration of this matter.

Respectfully yours,

Neal Walters
